Wildlife Management Expo

Attention all deer hunters and other wildlife enthusiasts; the Purina Wildlife Management Expo is coming to town again this year. M&M Farm Supply is bringing all the movers and shakers in the hunting industry to Franklin on Tuesday, September 7, 2010. The event will be held at the Pidgeon Community Center and doors open at 5:30 pm. Hunting gear and products from Bad Boy Buggies, Primos, Big Game TreeStands, American Hunter, Mojo Outdoors, Nikon and Purina Mills will be featured in booths on the Expo floor. All attendees can enter a drawing to win a Bad Boy Buggy as well as many other door prizes. Registration for our big buck contest will start at the discounted rate during the expo! Admission is free with a meal served at 6:00 pm. Please, please RSVP to our Franklin store so that we can plan for enough food!

Winter Feed Booking

Once again M&M will offer a winter feed booking program. This program has been a great benefit to ranchers for the past 24 years. Watch your mail, our website or our ads on TV for the booking dates. Right now it is planned for the last part of September. As always, we take this booking time very seriously and invite you to drop by the store for more details. We appreciate your business!

Buck Country Classic

M&M will have a big buck contest this fall. Community support has been tremendous which has enabled us to offer over $10,000 in prizes. Just go to the website www.BuckCountryClassic.com for all the rules and prize information. You must register prior to November 6, 2010. You will get $5.00 off when you sign-up at the wildlife seminar on September 7. All entry pictures will be featured on our website.

Please Visit Our Website

M&M's regular website continues to grow each month also. The number of visitors daily has been phenomenal. Just go to www.mmfarmsupply.com to access product information, upcoming events, past newsletters and the latest sales. You can get the daily/weekly weather forecasts for our area. We have also included the daily markets, including options, futures and all the commodity markets. There are many links to our vendors, plus much, much more!

M&M is now your ammunition headquarters....ammo for shotguns and rifles!
